

Application for membership of 'The City of Norwich Aviation Museum'

The City of Norwich Aviation Museum was built and is run by enthusiastic volunteers. If you are interested in taking up a rewarding hobby and would like to help, then consider one of the membership options listed below.

Here are just a few ways in which members become involved:-

Supporting our events programme - All income helps to pay for museum maintenance or special projects.

Helping by giving time as a museum steward, conservation worker, publicity distributor, site maintenance worker or giving presentations to local groups.

Serving in our 'Friendship Tea Room'- This can get very busy at peak times or during group visits.

Helping in the museum shop - This must be staffed whenever the museum is open.

Pick the membership type that suits you best:-

Full - Adults over 16yrs. All the benefits of museum membership. Fee (2016) £12.00

Junior - Under 16yrs. May require supervision on certain tasks. Fee (2016) £5.00

Family - Ideal when you want to bring your family along on a regular basis. Fee (2016) £15.00

Please note that all membership runs from January 1st to December 31st, no matter when applied for.
